Objective:

To develop the practical knowledge of the students.

To realize & to be familiar with the new electrical and electronics technology as well as automation technology that is used in the port management and also in the import & export management.

Company Profile:

Mundra Port is the largest private port of India located on the north shores of the Gulf of Kutch near Mundra, Kutch district, Gujarat. Formerly it was operated by Mundra Port and Special Economic Zone Limited (MPSEZ) owned by Adani Group which later it was expanded into Adani Ports & SEZ Limited (APSEZ) managing several ports.

Mundra Port is a deep draft, all-weather port that is today the largest commercial port of India with a high degree of electrification & mechanization. In fact, it is the only port in the country with handling and storage facilities for crude oil, containers, dry bulk, break bulk, automobiles and liquid cargo.

Experience:

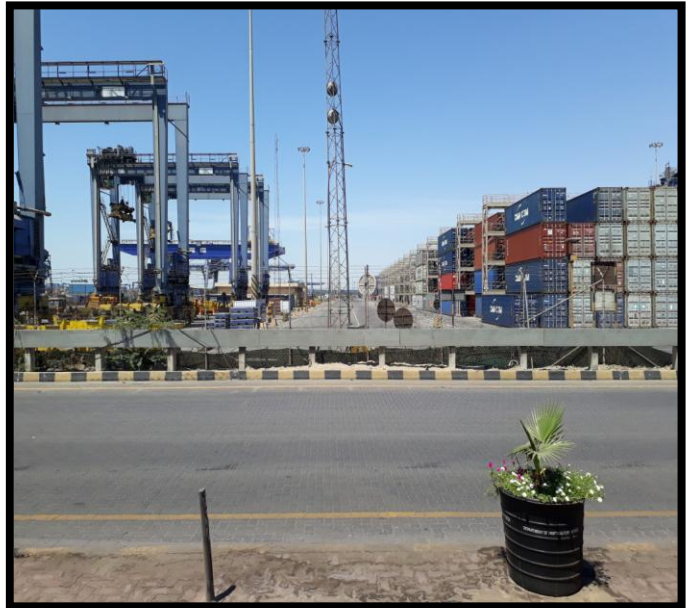

It was good experience for the students as well as faculties to familiarize with the technology and mechanisms used in the port management as well as import & export duty management. Good support from the company officials and guide of the firm to familiarize with the operation and its components.

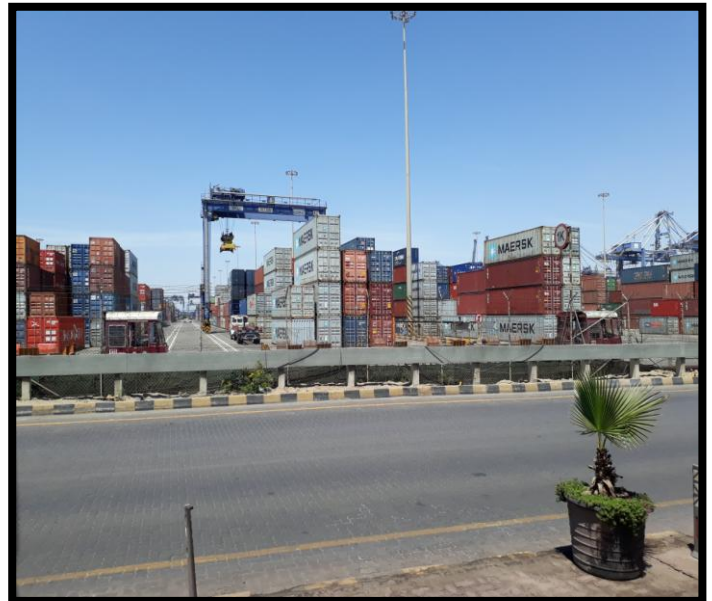

Learning from visit: Students and faculty members got the practical knowledge from the visit that how the machines like motors, generators, cranes are used in the shipping technology and import & export operations. Also they got the practical scenario about how the containers are loaded and unloaded as well as the coal, cement, and edible oil import & export management. The company has its own edible oil refinery.

Acknowledgement: Students are thankful to the Adani Ports & Special Economic Zone Limited - Mundra, Kutch and college to make such a great experience of the learning of the port electrification and automation. It increases the knowledge of students.
