CIRCULAR

Physical Disability Grievance Redressal Committee

Noble Group of Institutions, Junagadh, is committed to creating a healthy working & study environment. Students & faculties have the right to work without fear of prejudice, bias and harassment regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, race or religion. The institute also believes that all students and faculties have the right to be treated with dignity.

Considering these points, a committee comprising the following members is formed to look after & treat any cases of harassment, particularly of physically disabled students or faculties, at the work place or other then work place.
